CASE TAKEN UNDER ADVISEMENT

The taking of testimony on the protest against changing the name of the Good Government League Republican Club of St. Louis to the Missouri Republican League Club was finished in Judge Douglas's division of the Circuit Court yesterday, and the case was taken under advisement. The hearing was begun last Thursday. The objectors, among whom is Chauncey I. Filley, assert that the name of the club suggests its purposes and to change the name might lead to the presumption that the objects for which the club was formed would not be carried out in the future.

OBJECTED TO HOISTING ENGINEER OBJECTED TO HOISTING ENGINEER

The use by the contractors on the Bapk of Commerce building in course of construction at Broadway and Olive street yesterday of the electric elevator to hoist building materials to the roof caused a misunderstanding between them and the hoisting engineers. It was claimed that the electric elevator was operated by a nonunion man. The engineers of the steam elevator, which previously had been used, insisted that a union man should be secured as operator. The contractors declared their willingness to place a licensed engineer in charge if one could be found to operate the elevator satisfactorily.

BOLLING ARTHUR JOHNSON MISSing—Heber McDonaid, an agent for Boiling Arthur Johnsen, the Chicago lecturer, called at the Four Courts vesterday to solicit the nid of the police in searching for Johnson who, he says, has mysteriously disappeared from their boarding-house at No. 250 Locust street. Mr. Johnson recently lectured in St. Louin at the Y. M. C. A. Hail, under the auspices of the Travelers' Protective Association and was resting here preparatory to going to Kansas City, Mo., where he was to deliver a series of lectures this week, McDonaid said Johnson had about $400 on his person when he disappeared.

COMPLIMENTS ST. LOUIS DETECtives—Chief of Police Kiely received a letter yesterday from Commander Byrnes of the Pan-American Exposition at Buffalo, thanking him for the services of betective Louis Ziegler, who was sent on by the St. Louis department at the beginning of the Exposition. Commander Byrnes complimented the work of Detective Ziegler, who held the rank of Detective Sergeant on the Exposition force. Ziegler will start for St. Louis to-day. SALOONKEEPER PROBABLY PAtally Wounded—D. J. Boro, proprietor of a saloon at the corner of Laclesic and Ewing avenues, was shot twice and probably fatally wounded at 10:30 o'clock last night in a quarrel over change. John Delaney, 19 years old, of No. 3516 Laclede avenue, admitted that he had fired at Boro, claiming he did so because the saloonkeeper was in the act of drawing a revolver to shoot him. Delaney and George Craddick of No. 312 Laclede avenue were arrested and taken to the City Hospital whither Boro was removed.
Boro pointed to Craddick as the man who had shot him, but the physicians said that the wounded man's condition was too serious to place absolute reliance in his statements. Two bullets struck Boro. One entered in the back, passed through the abdomen and out at the left side. The second penetrated the left arm.

ARGENTINE MAKES A REQUEST. Wants Chile to Stop Road Build ing in the Cordilleras. London, Nov. 2.—"The Argentine Government has requested Chile to desist from roadmaking in the Cordilleras," says a dispatch to the Daily Mail from Buenos Ayres, "and has demanded an official declaration that the roadmaking already accomplished does not constitute a claim by Chile to the territory in dispute. Falling this assurance, the Argentine Minister, it is said, will be withdrawn."
